CHRIST'S DAY.

March trumpets and the violet Spring up to cheer the wood; E'en so when storms of winter fret; Does Christmas bloom lest we forget The joy of doing good.

Sweet day, when every bosom thrills With such a joy as stirred The Wise Men when, above the hills, They saw the star whose glory fills And beautifies the Word.

When soldiers leave the field of strife, And battle flags are furled, Where in the marts where trade was rife. There moves a mercy-loving life, A charitable world;

When favors are in all that's said, And acts do not oppress, But joys return we've counted dead-He maketh smooth the patch we tread With special tenderness.

O bells of golden gladness ring! The stream of plenty flows, The worlds has gifts to surfeiting, To-day our Brother Christ is King, And rules the hearts He knows. CHARLES E. BANKS.

The laws of health are taught in the practical benefit and are never illustrated by living examples, which in many cases might easily be done. If some scholar who has just contracted a cold was brought before the school so that all could hear the dry, loud cough and know its significance; and later, as the cold developed, see the profuse watery expectoration and thin watery discharge from the nose, not one of them would ever forget what the first DAILY.
